Reds Reject U.S. Plan For Korean Peace Conference

By WILLIAM C. BARNARD
PANMUNJOM 28—The Allies today handed the Communists detailed plans for a Korean peace conference, but the Reds said they could see no merit in the proposal and would unveil one of their own Monday.

Special U. S. Envoy Arthur H. Dean presented a 12-pound formula which would allow non-belligerent nations with a direct interest in Korea to attend the conference as non-voting observers.

Russia would attend as a full member on the Communist side of the table—not as a neutral as the Reds demand.

Dean said the 16 United Nations which fought in Korea and South Korea's President Syngman Rhee have endorsed the plan.

The envoy also said Rhee promised him not to resume hostilities while a peace conference is underway and to cooperate fully at the conference.

The fiery South Korean President has said repeatedly he would order his American-trained divisions northward unless progress is made toward unifying his country by late January.

Negotiations to set up the peace conference revert to full-scale plenary sessions Monday at the request of the Reds. The diplomats have met at two subcommittees since Nov. 16.

Dean suggested Friday that the Korean peace conference be held at Geneva, Switzerland, "not less than 28 nor more than 42 days" after termination of the current preliminary talks.

News Collected At Random

A nation-wide survey just completed by the "Voice of Prophecy," international radio broadcasters sponsored by the Seventh-day Adventist church, indicates that "The Old Rugged Cross," written in 1913 by George Bernard, is America's most favorite hymn.

The average lifetime of the American people reached a new high of 68.4 years in 1950, according to statisticians of life insurance companies. This represents a gain of 21 years since 1900. During the previous half-century, 1850-1900, the increase was only seven years.

General Hoyt S. Vandenberg, former Air Force Chief of Staff, in an article in Mechanics Today, says: "The year 1954 is considered critical because of the estimate that the Soviet Union will, by that time, have a stockpile of atomic weapons sufficient to mount a devastating attack on United States military installations, industries and population centers."

President Thomas Jefferson paid $100 for his first eyeglasses in 1783.

COUPLE WEDS IN NEW IPSWICH

GERMAN MODEL CHARGED WITH SPYING FOR REDS

NUERNBERG, Germany (AP)—A pretty former German model facing spy charges for allegedly trying to buy secret information from a U.S. soldier said today she "loved him very much."

And everything she had done, she claimed in a jail interview was out of her love for her 18-month-old son and a brother.

The 24-year-old blonde, Margarete Pfeiffer, is slated for a preliminary hearing before the U.S. District Court here Monday. She is charged with spying for Communist-ruled Czechoslovakia.

She was seized a week ago in a Grafenwoehr restaurant by two American counter-intelligence agents posing as waiters.

U.S. Dist. Atty. William D. Canfield said she was arrested the moment she tried to pay a soldier 1,000 marks ($238) for military information. The soldier, Pvt. William J. Elcher of M-Keesport, Pa., had tipped off the Army.

The defendant said Czech border guards helped her get her brother, a young Communist actor, into East Germany via Czechoslovakia in 1951 after West German authorities had refused him a pass.

Then, she said, a Czech civilian came to her and said, "We helped you. Now you must help us." She declared her brother told her he would be fired from his job in an East German theater if she did not agree.

"A Czech civilian turned up again in 1953 and threatened the Czechs would kidnap my little boy," she quoted the Czech as saying. "Contact American officers. You are young and pretty. You will get everything from them."

It might seem that so undeniable a proposition would be known to anyone. But it is plain that a great many of us still cherish the illusion that government can give us all kinds of services and benefits at little or no cost to us.

Actually, of course, we get back from government much less than what it takes from us. Waste and extravagance are the great detractors of our tax dollars.

North Korean Gets $100,000 For Jet

TOKYO (AP)—A North Korean airman who turned a Communist MIG jet over to the Allies has been paid a $100,000 reward.

The money was presented to Senior Lt. No Kum Sok, who landed his Russian-built fighter at a South Korean air base last summer and was granted asylum.

The Air Force said the pilot asked that a trust fund be set up to cover his educational expenses in the United States and to support his mother in South Korea.

Shortly before the armistice was signed, Gen. Mark W. Clark, then U. N. commander, offered $100,000 to the first Communist pilot to bring a MIG15 to an Allied airfield and $50,000 for subsequent MIGs. The offer was withdrawn after No Kum Sok's flight.

4 ON JAIL STAFF IN DELAWARE CO. HAVE BEEN FIRED

MEDIA, Pa. (AP)—The Delaware County Board of Prison Inspectors, charging gambling and favoritism, has dismissed four staff members of the county jail as of Dec. 1.

After an emergency meeting yesterday, the board said it had dismissed Guard Capt. John G. Heacock, Lieut. George Davis, Storekeeper Willie Demalo and Guard Henry J. Filippone.

The board's report yesterday charged that gambling and favoritism had been rampant at the county jail for several months.

Gambling Rampant
Dr. Kimber E. Voight, one of the board members who made the investigation, said he heard a prisoner had his cell painted a special color because he was "right with the guards." Dr. Voight said he knew "of others who got special mattresses."

George H. Heatherington, chairman of the board, made the investigation with Dr. Voight and another member.

"We found existing conditions which were deplorable," Heatherington said. "We found that gambling was rampant in the jail. It started last April when there was a concentrated effort on the part of police to break up gambling in the county and lot of gamblers were jailed."

Food At All Hours
"They cut out playing cards to represent money, and some money found its way into the prison. The guards and the prisoners were on equal footing. We found that cigarettes were used extensively as a monetary system."

"For five packs of cigarettes a prisoner could get a pair of trousers with two pockets. For two packs of cigarettes he could get a shirt with two pockets."

"Sandwiches of any variety were available at all hours at varying prices to the prisoners. We had to do something about it and this (the dismissals) is our answer."

Warden Frank J. Kernaghan heard the board's report at yesterday's special meeting but made no comment.

Seek To Prevent Can Company Strike

PITTSBURGH (AP)—A federal mediator will make a last ditch effort Monday to head off a threatened strike by the CIO United Steelworkers against the Continental Can Co.

Wage contract talks here were recessed yesterday until 10 a.m. Monday. Federal mediator William Rose said the recess was taken to allow Continental Can to develop a final wage offer.

The union seeks a reported 12-cent hourly wage boost for 18,000 member employees.

The contract expires Tuesday at midnight.

Representatives of American Can Co. will meet with the USW at a later date.

Workers in the U.S. now get $1.80 an hour; those in Canada, $1.50.

Neither the companies nor the union would comment.

Plan More Cuts In Oil Importation

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Gulf Oil Corp. which has been reducing foreign oil importation since World War II says it plans further cuts.

At the same time, a spokesman said that in each of the last two quarters the company reduced its imports below the preceding quarter in spite of an expected tendency of overall consumption to swing upward.

Gulf said its oil imports in the five years before World War II were about 20 per cent of the U.S. total. The 1953 percentage will be about 11½ per cent.

SNOW AND RAIN STRIKE EASTERN PART OF NATION

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Snow and rain fell in eastern parts of the country today as a late November cold spell continued over wide areas from the Rockies to the Atlantic Coast.

The snow storm which hit most of the Great Lakes region yesterday moved eastward into the Middle Atlantic states and parts of New England. However, most of the precipitation in New England was rain. Snow falls generally were light, ranging from one to three inches in the eastern areas.

There were showers in sections of the Gulf states. On the West Coast rain moved eastward with showers reported from the northern Rockies to the Western Dakotas.

Some Zero Readings

Fair weather prevailed over the Plains states and the southern half of the country, with temperatures in the 40s and 50s in the South-eastern and Gulf states and in the low 40s over most of Texas and New Mexico.

Temperatures dropped to near zero in some Midwest areas early today. One of the cold spots was Grantsburg, Wis., with a reading of four above. Freezing weather extended from Maine westward to the Rockies and as far south as Tennessee and Oklahoma. However some warming appeared in prospect for the Central states.

Readings were generally above season levels in most sections of the Rockies and around normal marks in the Far West. They ranged from the low 40s in Washington to the high 50s and low 60s in Southern California.

Five passengers in the other car were treated.

The Alumni Association of Emmitsburg High School will hold its annual Christmas dance Tuesday, December 29, in the new high school annex. More details of this dance and party will be announced in the near future.

GRANDCHILD OF TEXAS COUPLE IS BORN DEAD

ORANGE, Tex. (AP)—The 22-year-old love idyll of Betty McCuddy and Tom Buntin was shadowed by tragedy today after their second grandchild, a girl, was born dead.

Tom and Betty, who became Mr. and Mrs. Thomas D. Palmer after they disappeared in 1931 from their homes in Nashville, Tenn., and Russellville, Ky., had feared it would happen.

Ever since their secret love became public knowledge Thursday, they had tried to protect their pregnant daughter Elizabeth, from the excitement of publicity.

"Don't Ask Questions"
"Please," Betty, now a court stenographer, had told reporters, "don't ask me questions now. Come back in a few days and I'll talk gladly, but not now."

"Give us time to think things over," Tom, a television salesman, had said.

The man who had been a prominent Nashville insurance executive and the pretty young woman who had been his secretary—both long declared dead—only Thursday emerged as a happy couple with six children in this little Gulf Coast refining center.

Bitter About Publicity
In deep gloom after their old secret became known, they were surrounded almost immediately by friends, neighbors and fellow church-goers who sought to reassure and protect them. Their manner became more carefree.

Then came the tragic stillbirth and the publicity of the past few days, was hospitalized in extreme shock. Elizabeth was reported in good condition.

Elizabeth is the wife of Marine Cpl. William Burton in Korea and had stayed close to the Palmers' white frame home which well-wishers had filled with flowers in the past two days.

6 Foreign Ministers Confer At The Hague

THE HAGUE, Netherlands (AP)—French Foreign Minister Georges Bidault joined five other West European foreign ministers here today in talks on a political community framework for German rearmament under the European Defense Community.

Fresh from his government's narrow parliamentary victory in Paris, Bidault arrived by train while ministers were discussing economic and military integration of France, West Germany, Italy, Belgium, Holland and Luxembourg.

Bidault told reporters he would meet with West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer on the Saar Basin dispute.

Man, Two Daughters Killed By Blast

PITTSBURGH (AP)—A 26-year-old man and his two young daughters were killed in a predawn explosion and fire today that destroyed their four-room bungalow in the Mt. Washington section of this steel city.

The dead are Byrn R. Martin and daughters, Cheryl, 5, and Carol, 4. His wife Ann, 24, and two other children, Byron Jr., 2, and Edna, 6 months, escaped with minor injuries.

An accumulation of natural gas apparently was ignited by the fire and exploded in a room adjacent to the bedrooms. A neighbor who had spotted the fire and was on her way to warn the Martins was tossed to the sidewalk by the blast.

While playing football for Illinois, Harold (Red) Grange scored 31 touchdowns, gained 3,637 yards and threw 42 passes for 643 yards.

CARDINAL IS IN MOSCOW JAIL

VATICAN CITY (AP)—The Vatican radio reported Friday that Cardinal Stefan Wyszyński of Poland has been transferred in secret to a Moscow jail to await "typical Communist trial."

The radio, quoting information from Vienna, said the cardinal is locked in a Lubianka prison cell near that of Lavrenty P. Beria, ousted ex-chief of Soviet internal security.

The Vatican did not further identify the source of the information, but it is known to have its own sources behind the Iron Curtain.

The broadcast said it was believed the Polish primate is being put through the long, grueling preliminaries to the same type of Communist trial to which other Catholic leaders east of the Iron Curtain have been subjected.

About a week ago Pope Pius XII declared that the Communist action in confining the Polish primate "has opened a new wound in our heart."

IKE PROMISES PUERTO RICANS INDEPENDENCE

By TOM HOGE

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—President Eisenhower has promised to move for complete Puerto Rican independence any time the Legislature of that Caribbean commonwealth asks for it.

The offer was announced to the U.N. General Assembly last night by chief U.S. Delegate Henry Cabot Lodge Jr. Speaking during debate on proposed measures to determine when a dependent territory becomes self-governing, Lodge said:

"I am authorized to say on behalf of the President that at any time the Legislative Assembly of Puerto Rico adopts a resolution in favor of more complete or even absolute independence, he will immediately recommend to Congress that such independence be granted."

"Magnificent Attitude"
Puerto Rican Gov. Luis Munoz Marin declared in San Juan:

"This is a magnificent attitude which does honor to the United States and will show America and the whole world the sincerity of the present relationship of voluntary association between the United States and Puerto Rico."

The island, taken by the United States during the Spanish-American War of 1898, was recently given self-governing status as a commonwealth associated with the United States. Some U. N. delegates have contended that this status is meaningless and that in reality Puerto Rico is still a dependent territory.

Lodge is slated to touch off the heralded Korean atrocity debate when the Assembly resumes Monday with demands that the body condemn the Red torture killings in strongest terms.

Today's Talk

By GEORGE MATTHEW ADAMS

RICHES FOR YOU!

As my father was dying I sat by his bed and did all I could to comfort him. I thanked him for the great heritage that he was leaving me. Nothing in money, but great wealth in his example of integrity, courage, and ideals. I admired how he had devoted his life to the service of others, and inspired so many over a long ministry, to live the good life.There is no inheritance so valuable as that of a great character passed on to us, to enlarge and make evident in the world. There are sheets of invisible gold in every great book that has been bequeathed to the world. I am a multi-millionaire in spirit right in my library. But none of these precious volumes would be of any use to thieves, because they would be blind to the gold that I know is "part and parcel" of every great book.There are riches for you who read this Talk if you will only experience what I have over the years. And you will glory in your richness with each oncoming year. Books don't die. They get neglected, and often forgotten for a time, but people like me stir them often in their graves—and they rise again! Many many people write and thank me for introducing them to a book that has been a treasure to me, and that is compensation that I re-invest in my love of books.One evening, when we were talking about books, a roommate of mine in college confessed to me that the reading of "Les Miserables," by Victor Hugo, had changed the course of his life. Well, many a book has done that, and enlarged it for good measure.Ah, and what a wealth of riches, at no cost to us, is to be noted all about us—an autumn of colorful flakes, a sky of stars, falling snowflakes silently giving a robe to the golden leaves that fell in October and November, a singing stream, and a thrush's call. Sunshine and shadow, and the understanding look in the eyes of a dog. Riches everywhere—for YOU!Protected, 1953, George Matthew Departs the world to join the what may.The lifetime of a year is known.

We see it come and watch it go.But are not certain of our own.
Its length not one of us can

(R-Ind) Friday left the issue of questioning Igor Gouzenko up to Canadian and U. S. diplomats and pressed forward on other fronts in his Communists-in-government probe.He issued a statement which said the internal security subcommittee which he heads has nine former government employees, including Aiger Hiss, "now under special scrutiny."The subcommittee is trying to determine who was responsible for their continued employment, which in most cases, involved promotions increased authority, continued access to government secrets, and increases in pay, the statement said last night.It was thus apparent Jenner plans no further steps until there is a fresh exchange of views between Secretary of State Dulles and Canadian Foreign Minister Lester B. Pearson.

Jenner's subcommittee has asked and been rejected, then asked again for Canadian permission to question Gouzenko. The one-provided (1) Gouzenko is willing to be interviewed, (2) the interview is confidential and under Canadian auspices and (3) the decision as to making public the information gleaned is left to Canada.Jenner objected to the last condition, saying his committee could not promise it would keep from Congress—and hence the public—any "evidence vital to the security of the United States." He asked Dulles to try for a different arrangement.

EXPECTED IN $681,700 THEFTBOSTON (AP)—A federal official said Friday the FBI expects to make more arrests in the $681,700 robbery from a parked armored car in Danvers 20 months ago.Asst. U.S. Atty. Edward D.
Hassan said the FBI "seemed to know who they were looking for and they told me they expected to make more arrests soon."

The FBI refused to comment.

A family of three is under arrest in connection with the second biggest cash robbery in U.S. history—the bold theft from an armored car of the United States Trucking Co., which was left unattended on Danvers Square while its three guards slipped coffee in a nearby drug store.Arrested Wednesday night were George D. O'Brien, 43, an ex-convict; his wife Margaret, 42, mother of three children; and their son George Jr., 19, a third-year student at Massachusetts Institute of Technology.The father was charged with the theft of property from a federal reserve bank. He is being held in $100,000 bail for hearing Dec. 9.
The mother and son were charged with receiving stolen property. The son is being held in $5,000. The mother is free on her personal recognizance.Local police officials reported they were informed that FBI agents went to the Lincoln Downs horse race track in Rhode Island Thursday in search of other suspects but the FBI refused to confirm that.The FBI also refused to confirm a report that they arrested the O'Briens in connection with the robbery in Danvers, 20 miles north of Boston, although O'Brien originally was being investigated for the $121,200 Brink's Boston counting room robbery of January 1950.The Brink's robbery represents the biggest cash haul in the country's history.O'Brien and his wife were arrested at the $21,000 home they bought in the seashore town of Wollaston last January. They had lived before that in a Dorchester district third-floor tenement.The younger O'Brien was arrested on the MIT campus. The school suspended him after his arrest "pending the outcome of the case."Prosecution Rests

Plane Before SinkingTOKYO (AP)—Twenty-five passengers and five crewmen Thursday night climbed out of a ditched Army transport plane five minutes before it sank in the Japan Sea.The Air Force said the C46 was coming in for a ground controlled blind landing at the U. S. Air Force Base at Miho, on the southern tip of Honshu, missed the landing strip and was forced to ditch about three miles off the coast.
It sank 10 minutes later.A crash boat picked up all the passengers and crew and brought them back to the base. One crew member received a broken wrist.
Three others had minor bruises.COUPLE FOUND SHOT TO DEATHJERSEY SHORE, Pa. (AP)—Mrs.
Nancy Cupp of Aovis, Clinton
County, and Charles W. Fausey, Jersey Shore, were found Thursday shot to death in what state police called murder and suicide.Cpl. John Ricketts of the state police Montoursville barracks, said Fausey, 43, a Williamsport factory worker and father of four children, had shot Mrs. Cupp, 27, mother of three children with a 16-gauge shotgun and then turned it on himself. The gun was found between Fausey's legs when police forced their way into a cabin in thick woodlands seven miles north of Jersey Shore.

Both Faced Charges

Charles H. Rhodes and Quinton Goda, both of Reading, had gone to the cabin which they maintained for hunting to investigate a report from friends that it had been entered. They told police they found a car parked outside and as they were getting out of their own auto a heard two shots and groans from the cabin.Dr. Earl R. Miller, acting Lycoming County coroner, decided against conducting an inquest.Ricketts, chief investigating officer in the case, said that earlier this week charges had been filed against Fausey for desertion and non support while another warrant had been issued for Mrs. Cupp charging her with abandonment of her children.Fausey was shot in the chest and head and Mrs. Cupp in the chest.TWO STORES
BURN IN YORKYORK, Pa. (AP)—A general alarm fire destroyed two stores in the downtown district Thursday causing damage estimated at $75,000 to $100,000.H. Raymond Linton, assistant fire chief, said the cause of the fire was undetermined but that he is conducting an investigation. He said the inquiry included looking into complaints that several men were seen hanging around the garage-shed where the fire started.The city's 10 fire companies answered the alarm and fought four hours before bringing the blaze under control. It ruined the business establishments of the Frank Patrick and Wallpaper Co., and York Bedding Co. next door and forced seven families to flee from apartments in front of the stores.Leo Erdos, owner of the bedding factory and warehouse, said his merchandise and stock was a total loss. The damage estimate of over $75,000 was made by Theodore Carpenter, York public safety director.MAN IS ROBBED AND STRANGLED
WITH NECKTIEPHILADELPHIA (AP)—Thomas
McFarland, 76-year-old taxicab operator, was found trussed up and strangled with his own necktie in his home Friday.The body, partly clad, lay grotesquely on the bed around which clothing was scattered. Amidst the disorder was an empty wallet. The man's artificial right leg had been cast among the clothes, as if it, too, had been searched for money.Police said it seemed certain that robbery was the motive.They said that McFarland was slain in the night, while a woman lodger in his house slept undisturbed two bedrooms away.His body was found early Friday by one of McFarland's drivers who called at the house, as usual, to turn in the night's receipts. Mc-Farland owned the United Cab Assn., which operates two cars and employs four drivers.

$104 Is Untouched

Chief Detective Inspector Albert
E. DuBois said Friday was pay day for McFarland's drivers, and the killer seemingly expected to find a good deal of money in the house.
Whether there was, DuBois did not know. Despite the general ransacking, a cigar box kept in a kitchen cupboard, and holding $104 in bills and coin, was untouched.McFarland's wife, 72, was away from home for Thanksgiving.She told police, upon her return, that she was McFarland's fourth wife, and that his first one, whose name she did not give, was being buried in Pottsville, Pa., Friday.She said McFarland came from the hard coal region of eastern Pennsylvania, and that he lost his right leg in a mine accident. A breaker boy of 11 at the time, he was run over by a mine car.McFarland is survived also by two sons, James, 38, serving with the Army in Korea, and Thomas, 36, of Camden, N. J., and a widowed daughter, Mrs. Martha Coleman.BARLOW FIRE COMPANY

DAVE GALLARDO SCORES UPSET; TO MEET AGAIN

NEW YORK (AP)—Davey Gallardo had a win over Lulu Perez, a Jan. 1 date with the same fighter, and a laugh over the "Broadway wise guys" today.

The scrappy, 23-year old Los Angeles featherweight set up the package last night by swarming all over the 20-year old Brooklynite to score an upset, unanimous ten-round decision in Madison Square Garden.

As a result of the form reversal, the two will meet in a rubber match in the Garden New Year's night. The winner will get a garden crack at Willie Pep, the former featherweight champion, in mid-February.

Perez was a 17-to-5 choice to repeat his Sept. 4 triumph over the crewcut Californian and rack up his 24th straight victory. Instead he suffered his first loss in 25 months, the second defeat of his career against 33 wins, and showed he had plenty to learn. He was dropped twice for mandatory eight counts in the fourth round.

The nationally telecast and broadcast fight drew only 3,373 fans.

Welterweights To Fight Tonight On TV

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP)—Johnny Cunningham and Carmen Basilio, two welterweight upset artists, match punches tonight in a 10-round nationally televised bout.

The scrap in Civic Auditorium will be carried over the ABC network, beginning at 9 p.m. (EST), with the Toledo area blacked out.

Judging here is on a point basis, with 10 for a round.

Hornets Crowding 2nd Place Hershey

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Pittsburgh Hornets were back in third place in the American Hockey League today, just one point behind the second place Hershey Bears.

The Hornets now have 21 points, and 9-9-3 record. The Bears, with 22 points, show a 10-10-2 mark for the season's work. The Hornets passed the idle Providence Reds, who have 20 points.

A five-goal binge in the first period made the Hornets' task easy, as they scored a 6-1 victory over Syracuse last night.

The other teams were idle.

TRABERT BEATS AYRE AS SEIXAS TRIMS GILMOUR

MELBOURNE, Australia (AP)—Things looked up for the U.S. Davis Cuppers in the Victorian Tennis Championships today.

Tony Trabert, the U.S. champion from Cincinnati, gained the quarterfinals by trouncing Ian Ayre, 6-8, 6-4, 6-2, 6-0, and Vic Seixas, the Wimbledon champion from Philadelphia, demonstrated his injured knee was on the mend by whipping Bill Gilmour, the Australian junior titlist, 6-3, 4-6, 6-4, 6-4.

Although Seixas played cautiously in order not to risk hurting the sprained ligament in his right knee, he expressed confidence after the match.

Trabert Impressive

"It took a great load off my mind," said Vic who won the Victorian title last year. "I played cautiously and intended to pull out if my leg gave any trouble. Now I'm confident that with a day's rest on Sunday I will be 100 per cent okay."

No tournament matches are scheduled Sunday.

Trabert's victory was impressive. He finished brilliantly winning 10 of the last 12 games, including the last seven in a row.

After their singles matches, Trabert and Seixas teamed in the doubles to beat Dudley Goodger and John Hann, Australia, 6-3, 6-1, 6-1.

TO MANAGE MONTREAL

MONTREAL (AP)—Max Macon, one-time major league pitcher and first baseman Friday was named manager of the Montreal Royals of the International Baseball League. He succeeds Walter Alton, named manager of the parent Brooklyn Dodgers earlier this week.

Macon, who was manager of the Fort Worth team in the Texas League for 1953, was signed to a one-year contract. Alton also managed here under one-year contracts.

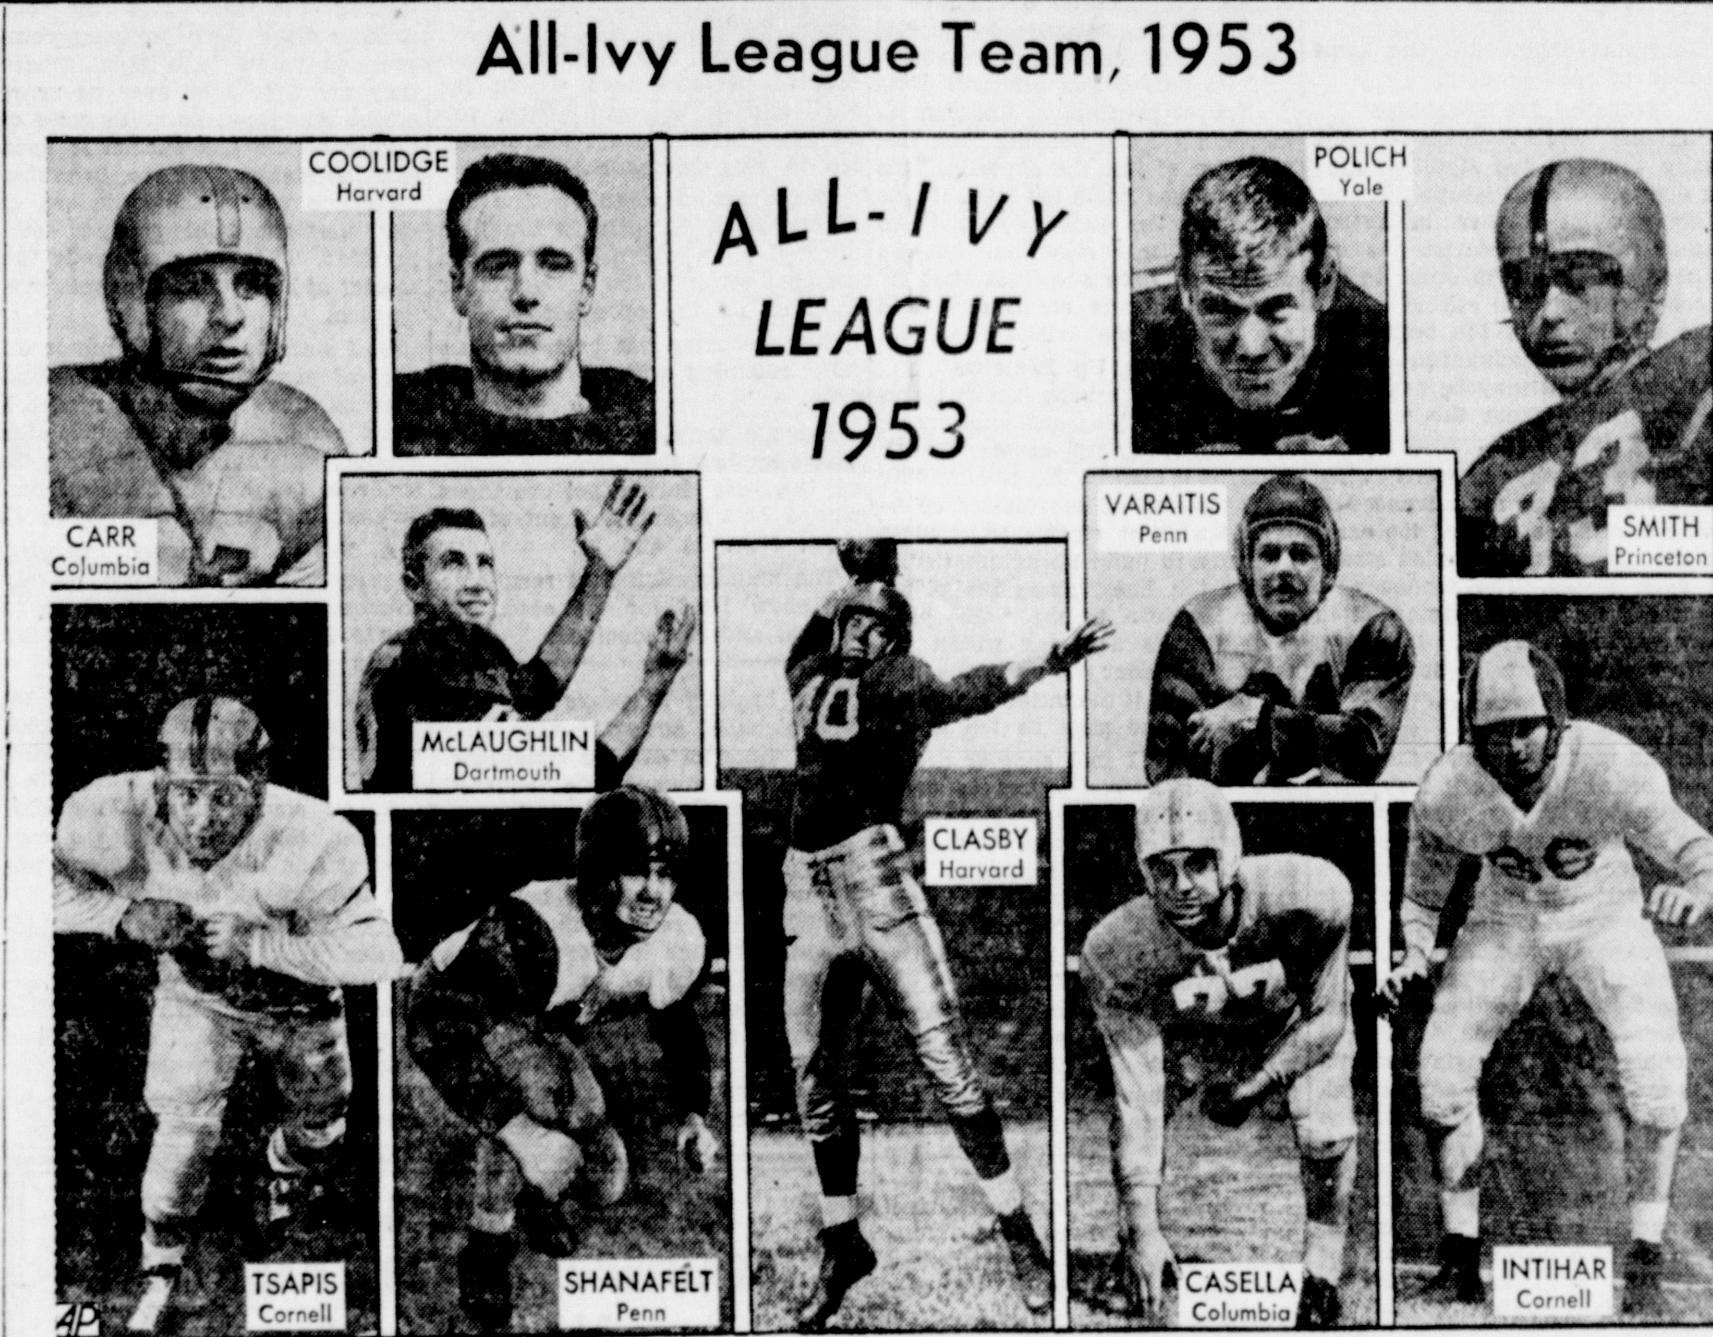

Hawks Nip Warriors Without Sunderlage

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Milwaukee Hawks, who had won only two games all season, thought they really were in for trouble when they lost their scoring star, Don Sunderlage, before last night's game with the Philadelphia Warriors.

Instead, they took to the court and battled to a 55-51 victory over the Warriors in the only National Basketball Association game of the night. The lead changed hands six times in the fourth quarter.

In the Cleveland Indians' last home stand of the season against the eastern clubs, the Tribe completed at least one double play in each game.

MICKEY MANTLE HIT .269 LAST HALF OF SEASON

By FRANK ECK

NEW YORK (AP)—It's no wonder Mickey Mantle underwent a 45-minute operation for the removal of a semilunar cartilage on his right knee. It seems like ages since the Yankees last measured the 565-foot home run he hit in Washington.

As a matter of fact, the big drive heard round the baseball world, came way back on April 17 in the Yankee's fourth game of the season. It was Mick's first homer in a year that was supposed to be the most productive for the 22-year-old switch-hitting center-fielder.

But Mantle hit only 20 more home runs. He had hit 23 in 142 games in 1952 and batted .311. Sports writers pulled no punches in comparing Mantle's drives with some that Babe Ruth had hit. Some thought Mantle would fill the vacant shoes of Joe DiMaggio. For a while last summer all he filled was Manager Casey Stengel's doghouse.

To top things off, Mantle, despite his important hand in the four World Series games won by the Yankees, was a rank disappointment during the last half of the American League season. From July 10 until the finish he batted only .269, and few teams in the major leagues can afford to carry any outfielder who hits below .300. He wound up with a .295 mark.

His failure to hit better the last half was all the more disappointing because on May 20 he was hitting .360 and as late as June 12 was leading the league with .346.

But late in June he suffered a torn left leg muscle and missed six games. Soon after returning to action his right knee conked out and he covered very little ground in the outfield. He was shifted to right field and then left field, but nothing seemed to work. Just before the World Series, Stengel, aware of Mantle's bad knee, gave serious thought of playing Irv Noren in Mick's spot.

It was then that Dr. Sidney Gaynor, Yankee team physician, told Mantle that he would need a knee operation before next season.

"We devised a special brace for his knee and naturally his action was limited," says Dr. Gaynor. "I suggested the operation and told Mantle and the club officials."

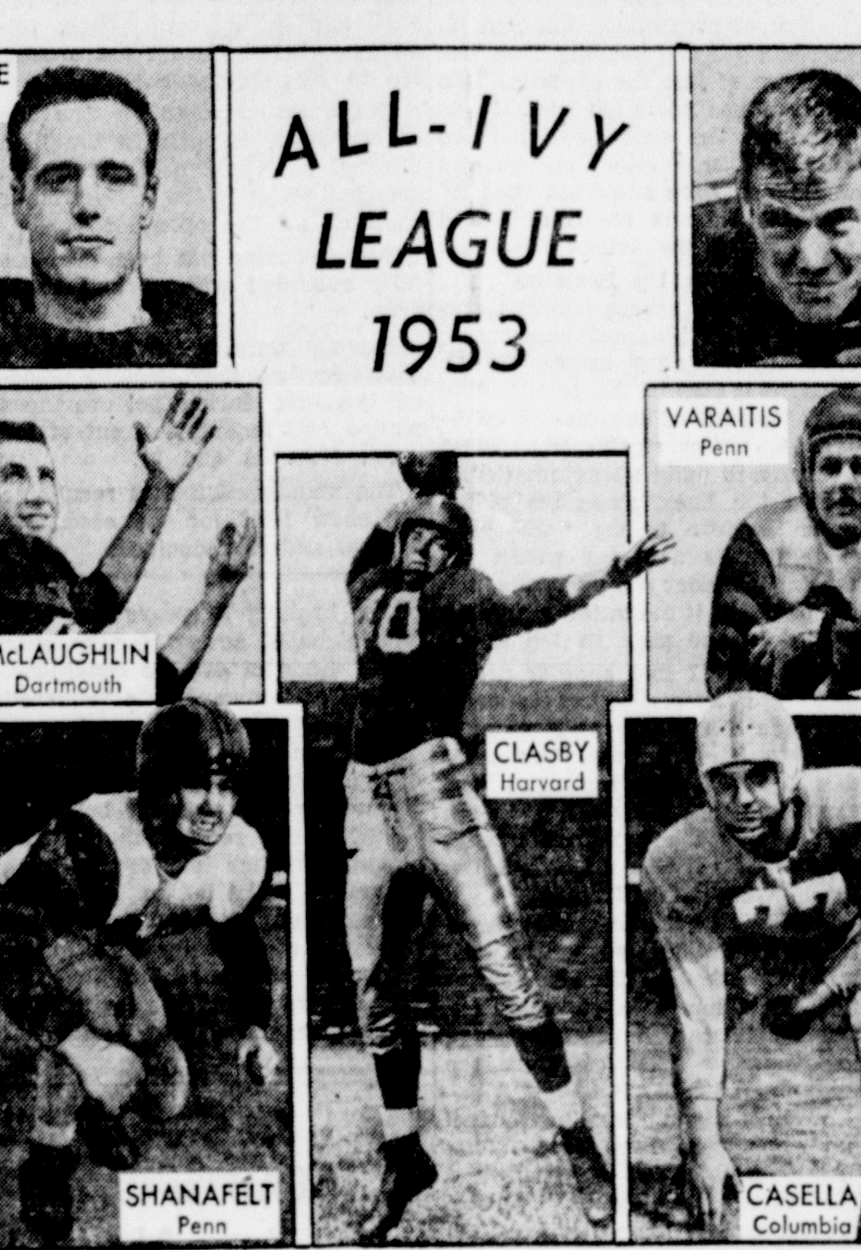

"Strong As Ever"

Mantle then went to Dr. George Bennett before the Series and he, too, suggested an operation. Finally, Dr. Dan Yancey performed the operation with assistance from Dr. C. Bertram Mayer and Dr. Frank Sundstrom.

"His knee will be as strong as it was before the operation," says Dr. Yancey. "There will be no loss of action. He won't have to favor the knee after about three months."

Mantle played in only 54 of the Yankees last 81 games, and when he played he favored his right knee. Barring left handed in the Series he fanned eight times and made only three hits in 16 efforts. Mantle will not know for sure

29 Ex-POWs Keep Promise To Hold Reunion Today At Army-Navy Game In Uniform

By LEE LINDER

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The Army-Navy football game is a deluxe extravaganza for the rabid sports fan but to 29 of the 102,000 happy persons here today to watch the contest it is a dream come true.

The 29 are officers who were prisoners of the Communists in Korea.

All of the ex-POWs are still in service, with most of them still under medical treatment in service hospitals.

One Can't Come

Navy Lt. J. W. Thornton reported "with regret" that Bruce Shawe, a West Point graduate and one of the prime movers in the reunion, planned since 1952, would not attend. Army physicians in San Francisco said he was not well enough to make the long trip.

Shawe secured the game tickets for his buddies and their wives, Thornton said.

The men spent the night at Willow Grove Naval Air Station at suburban Hershman and will be given special transportation to Municipal Stadium.

Waive Regulations

"We'll be there unless there is 15 feet of snow and, even then, we may make it," Thornton said.

Because of crowded hotels the Navy waived regulations to provide accommodations for the Korean veterans, who represent all the services.

After the game the former prisoners of war and their wives will be guests of honor at a dinner dance at the Willow Grove officers' club.

Thornton was the last of the 29 to return to the United States from captivity, arriving Sept. 24.

He won't Be There

He said none of "our gang" will be neutral and noted the cheers would be divided. The group includes Marine Capt. Charles Martin of Philadelphia, Air Force Capt. William C. McTaggart of East Brady, Pa.; Army Capt. Michael Ivanuska of Detroit and Joseph O'Connor of Pottstown, Pa., and Thornton—the only Navy man.

Also in the standing-room-only crowd will be King Paul and Queen Frederika of Greece. They are squeezing the game into their crowded schedule and will eat at their luncheon meal, a couple of hotdogs and soda pop.

Secretary of Defense Wilson will occupy the box usually reserved for the President ("Ike") decided to play golf instead of watch football.

He will be joined by other members of the Cabinet and top Army and Navy brass.

Ideal Weather For Army-Navy Battle

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The weatherman forecast ideal football conditions for today's college gridiron classic—the 54th annual Army-Navy game.

After yesterday's day-long rain and snow, prospects looked bad but the weatherman issued this forecast: "Considerable cloudiness with some sunshine, high temperature '42'."

A crowd of 102,000 is expected at Municipal Stadium for the 1:30 p.m. (EST) kickoff. Millions more will watch on television (NBC).

Ducks, Geese Have No Particular Diet

COLUMBIA, Mo. (AP)—Migrating ducks and geese aren't a bit finicky about what they eat.

Leroy Korschgen, biologist for the Missouri Conservation Commission who studied the diet of 2,252 ducks and 185 Canada geese, has discovered 234 plants and 48 animal foods made up the bulk of their diet.

For ducks the favorites are corn, smartweeds, wild millets, acorns and cutgrasses. Geese eat wild millets, smartweeds, cutgrasses, spike-rushes, miscellaneous vegetation, winter wheat and corn, in that order.

Korschgen says they do not harm agricultural crops.

SIX IRISH SENIORS

NOTRE DAME, Ind. (AP)—Six seniors have been starters for Notre Dame's football team this season.

JAMIE K ARRIVED FIRST

MIAMI (AP)—Jamie K, the James D. Norris colt that lost to Native Dancer in photo finishes in both the Belmont and Preakness, was the first horse to unload in Florida for the winter racing season. Jamie K arrived at Hialeah three hours after the stable area was opened.

ANNOUNCES ENGAGEMENT

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP)—Tennis queen Maureen Connolly announced her formal engagement last night but said she planned at least one more year of big time amateur tennis before marriage.

The 19-year-old holder of most of the world's major women's tennis titles said she will marry Norman Brinker, 22, a horse-racing sailor, some time after his Navy enlistment ends in January, 1955.

JOHNNY MIZE IS HUNTING A JOB

NEW YORK (AP)—For the first time since he started his major league career almost two decades ago, Johnny Mize, one of the greatest sluggers in baseball, was job-hunting today.

The 40-year-old first baseman of the New York Yankees decided yesterday he had come to the end of the road as a player and asked the Yanks to make him a free agent so he could seek a manager's job at the minor league meetings starting in Atlanta Monday.

Although Mize, who hit 359 home runs since breaking in with the St. Louis Cardinals in 1936, said he would quit after the Yanks won their fifth straight world championship last month, his action came somewhat as a surprise. After the 1952 World Series he also said he intended to quit playing.

CLEVELAND CAN CLINCH PRO GRID TITLE ON SUNDAY

NEW YORK (AP)—The rampaging Cleveland Browns, with a victory streak of nine games, can wrap up their eighth straight National Football League divisional championship tomorrow.

And the man who thinks they can't lick the Chicago Cardinals would be the object of quizzical looks, indeed, if he spoke out. The hapless Cards have exactly one tie to show for their season's work, along with eight losses.

Otto Graham and Co. have licked the Cards seven times in a row, and this is no time to stop.

Eagles Second Best

The Philadelphia Eagles, with a winning streak of six games, are in the unfortunate position of being the second best team in the Eastern Conference behind the Browns. They play the New York Giants, a good defensive outfit.

But the Eagles have perhaps the most crushing offense in the league and most observers think they'll win much as they please.

Another Eastern Division game pits the Washington Redskins against the Pittsburgh Steelers. T. Steelers' failure to compile a better than 4-5 record has been one of the mysteries of the loop. They still are strong on paper, but with Jim Finks injured, they'll be badly handicapped.

The Detroit Lions' 34-15 victory over Green Bay Thanksgiving Day all but cemented the Western Division title for them. The Los Angeles Rams and the San Francisco 49ers still are in the running.

The Rams play the Chicago Bears in Chicago while the 49ers tackle the Baltimore Colts. Both the Rams and the 49ers will be heavily favored.

SAN MATEO, Calif.—Aptos ($3,600) won the feature race at Bay Meadows as Jockey Willie Shoemaker rode another winner to raise his 1953 world's record to 457.

"HAT TRICK" ERROR

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Because of a scorekeeping error, rookie Parker MacDonald of the Pittsburgh Hornets in the American Hockey League was deprived of a well-earned "hat trick" (scoring of three goals). The three goals he tallied against the Syracuse Warriors were erroneously given to teammate Johnny McClellan. The error, however, was rectified the next day and MacDonald had his first professional "hat trick" recorded.

ARMY AND NAVY TAKE CENTER OF GRIDIRON STAGE

By ED CORRIGAN

NEW YORK (AP)—For the first time this season, a couple of so-so Eastern teams will hog the spotlight today as the college football season breathes its last.

Army and Navy take the center of the stage for their annual game in Philadelphia and a capacity crowd of 102,000 is expected to crowd into Municipal Stadium.

This will be the National Collegiate Athletic Association's televised game of the week and untold millions will watch it on their screens.

Notre Dame, which lost its top spot in the country last week when it played a 14-14 tie with Iowa, will try to regain some of its prestige at the expense of Southern California. A crowd of more than 90,000 is expected at Los Angeles to watch this one.

Bowl Decision Up

At least one bowl nominee may be known at the end of the day's hostilities. Rice and Baylor have a Southwest Conference date at Houston and the game is replete with intriguing possibilities.

Texas, which has finished its season, can do no worse than tie for the title. But the Longhorns no doubt will spend the day rooting for Baylor. If the Bruins win, they'll be tied with Texas for the title, but they dropped a 21-20 decision to the Longhorns. That probably would give the Cotton Bowl spot to Texas.

If Rice wins, however, the Owls should get the bid because they whipped Texas 18-13 a month ago.

Army Slight Favorite

Army has been installed a slight favorite in this its 54th battle with Navy. But it was to be expected no matter which team was the choice because in 26 previous meetings the game has been decided by a touchdown or less.

Army has won six lost one and tied one, while Navy has won four, lost two and tied two.

As for Notre Dame, the Irish will be playing with their coach, Frank Leahy, resting at his Long Beach, Ind., home. His physician, Dr. Nicholas G. Johns, said Leahy "simply has not recovered" from the severe stomach cramps he suffered during the Georgia Tech game a month ago.

Irish Are Favored

Leahy's assistants, Joe McArdle and Bill Earley, will direct the team in his absence. The Irish have been installed as two-touchdown favorites over the Trojans. The Southwestern Conference title—and a probable trip to one of the bowls—will be decided in two games in Dixie. Mississippi can win if it beats Mississippi State. But if underdog State wins, the conference victor will be decided by the result of the Alabama-Auburn game at Birmingham. Both schools are reported under consideration for both the Cotton Bowl, and Gator Bowl.

Georgia Tech, which will play in the sugar bowl, concludes its regular season operation against Georgia.

EIGHT KILLED IN ACCIDENTS OVER HOLIDAY

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Turkey soup and cold cuts of white meat in the refrigerator... memories of a thrilling football game... and the prospect of Christmas shopping in earnest.

These thoughts filled the minds of Pennsylvanians today as they returned to the work-a-day world of reality after annual observances of thanksgiving.

With a nip of Old Man Winter in the air, the weatherman forecast light snow and flurries here and there across the state and temperatures dropping into the low thirties.

The big collegiate game in the state ended in a 7-7 tie between traditional Thanksgiving Day rivals Penn and Cornell at Franklin Field in Philadelphia. Also in the Quaker City, Howard of Washington, D.C., defeated their rival Oxford, Pa., Negro college, Lincoln, 12-7, at Temple Stadium and Schriener journeyed to Hempstead N. Y., to outplay Hofstra, 20-7, before 2370 fans. A number of traditional scholastic rivals in the state also met in annual encounters.

500,000 See Parade

Religious observances of Thanksgiving were held throughout the commonwealth and a huge crowd of 500,000 parents and children viewed the "official" arrival of Santa Claus in the Toyland Parade staged annually by Gimbels' Department Store in Philadelphia.

A strike that closed parking lots in the center city area added to the traffic problem in Philadelphia and a walkout of Johnstown traction Co. employees sent residents of that city to church and ball game on foot yesterday.

Eight Pennsylvanians died in traffic fatalities and several others were injured. A. Harlan Clark, 26, of East Petersburg, near Lancaster was killed when his high-powered deer rifle discharged accidentally.

In a three-fatal crash near Kingston, N. Y., Charles H. Arthur of York was killed and a second York resident H. T. Martin, was taken to Kingston City Hospital in serious condition.

One Killed On Turnpike

Josepa Kaczmarek of Erie was killed when his auto collided with a trailer truck near Buffalo, N. Y.

In a similar accident on the icy Pennsylvania Turnpike near Beaver Falls, Fred A. Weithman, 35, of Erie, was killed when his vehicle skidded across the medial strip striking a truck operated by Joseph E. Smith, 32, of Bedford. Smith was uninjured.

William McDowell, 20-year-old University of Pittsburgh student, died in Butler Memorial Hospital after his car smashed into a tree while en route to his home in Sligo, Clarion County.

Two men were killed in the Bethlehem area in separate accidents.

Frank E. Dengler, 48-year-old resident of Breinigsville, Lehigh County, was killed when his small truck struck a trailer truck on route 22 at Fogelsville.

Dentist Is Killed

Kenneth Shuck, 23, of Mauch Chunk, died in Palmetton Hospital after his car turned over on Route 45 near Cherryville, Northampton County.

Just below the Maryland border in Ringtown, a car driven by a Waynesboro resident, Jared McKown, 25, collided with another vehicle killing Dr. Theodore Wycall, a Chatham, N. J., dentist and injuring six persons. McKown, one of the six, is in critical condition in the Waynesboro Hospital.

An auto overturned on Route 160 north of Windber, near Johnstown killing the driver, Clifford E. Krise, 22, of Elton, Cambria County.

On Wednesday, Howard C. Grayson, 60, of Forest City, was struck and fatally injured by an auto while crossing the highway near Lansdale. He was en route to Philadelphia to spend Thanksgiving with relatives.

IKE SAYS HE'S VERY THANKFUL

AUGUSTA, Ga., (AP) — President Eisenhower Friday awaited a State Department report on Russia's note dealing with a four-power conference.

"The State Department is studying it and the President has nothing to say at this time," Murray Snyder, assistant White House press secretary, told newsmen at Eisenhower's vacation headquarters.

Eisenhower sat down to Thanksgiving dinner with his family last night, expressed deep gratitude for his son's safe return from Korea and voiced the fervent hope that American boys never have to go to war again.

"We are very, very thankful," the President said happily.

The dinner scene with a 39-pound turkey on the table was the trophy room of the Augusta National Golf Club.

With the President, carving knife in hand, were the First Lady; their son and daughter-in-law, Maj. and Mrs. John Eisenhower; and the three grandchildren — David, 6, Barbara Anna, 4, and Susan, 2.

Braking Systems Need Most Attention On Cars; Front Lights Are Next On List

BY F. C. RUSSELL

Judging by accident statistics there's many a slip between the accelerator and the brake pedal.

Nothing To Brag About

Shocking as it may seem the thing that needs most attention on cars is the braking system. Safety inspections reveal an actual increase in the percentage of cars which are lacking in this most important function. Last year in one check-up 24.4 per cent of the cars tested were in need of brake adjusting or more extensive servicing, whereas this year the figure had increased to 26.8 per cent. Next on the list of defects were the car's front lights which were 14.2 by the latest count. Horn defects were way down the list at 3.0 per cent, showing a decrease of .6 per cent as compared with the year previous.

The trade is currently alarmed over low quality brake lining which has been flooding the market. One panic stop and this lining is almost useless. Tests recently conducted also show that brake fluid leaking on some of the spurious lining causes it to disintegrate rapidly.

It figures one out of every six cars needing attention to the brakes. This is one reason so many people get trapped into trouble when the car at the head of the line stops suddenly. The car just ahead of your may not be stopping as quickly as it should because the brakes are not up to par. You could stop more quickly but are trapped into assuming it isn't necessary.

Your Money's Worth

There would be less complaining about repair costs and the time required to do various jobs on the car if there were better appreciation of the time required to get ready for the work, as well as to finish it off. For a transmission overhaul on a typical car 2.3 hours of work are required to get the car ready for the 3 hours of actual work which includes removing and replacing the pressure plate. A lot of what looks like just messing around is vital to the work that requires skill and special equipment. It is a large part of what you pay for.

Brothers Under The Skin

A friend of mine spent a beautiful autumn week-end trying to time one of the engines of his power boat. He had replaced one, or two parts, and when the motor continued to run poorly he assumed he had thrown the job off beat. Try as he would he just couldn't get the motor to run the way it should. Later one of the boatyard mechanics discovered a cracked distributor cap. Moisture gets into such a crack and permits flashing over and thus a mixed-up condition of the firing.

Your car engine has the same chance of misbehaving.

Mechanic Joe Speaking:

"If the engine doesn't crank easily this fall the situation may be due to incorrect ignition timing. With gasoline higher in octane rating many a motorist has advanced the timing in order to get more pep from the engine and to take advantage of the better gas mileage which advanced timing provides. But it may be necessary to back away from this a bit if cranking is difficult.

"What actually happens when the engine is too far advanced is that the mixture is fired too early on the upward compression stroke of each piston. The tendency is for the pistons to be retarded in their upward travel. It slows down cranking like too heavy oil."

Checking Them Two Ways

It may seem to be a waste of time and money to check the front wheel bearings to see if they have sufficient lubricant because they so often have plenty when exposed to view, but don't forget that the greater virtue in such inspection is the opportunity to check for bearing damage. Caught one in my own car the other day. Fortunately it had just started, so the ball bearings were not damaged.

Trouble idling the engine smoothly is more usual than exceptional, and for a variety of reasons. One is that cooling is below normal, resulting in uneven temperatures which adversely affect tappet clearances and ring expansion. There is also more likelihood of loading up with an over-rich or over-vaporized mixture. But a simple fact is often overlooked. I refer to the ignition system which, during idling, is completely dependent on the battery. That is why expert tune-up men always check the battery before starting to smooth out the engine.

Keep These In Mind

When a mechanic wants to know if clutch springs are weak he presses the pedal down with his hand. If it's too easy he's suspicious.

If your driving is mostly at road speed you may need a different capacity condenser for the breaker points in order to check burning. Now is the time to use cardboard between the grille and the front lower portion of the radiator cover as a winter windbreak. It's most effective in helping the car heater do a better job.

Give Him Clean Slate

One thing every experienced mechanic has come to by-pass is the inadvertently throwing him off the habit too many motorists have of track by offering their own diagnoses too freely. I had a good example of this the other day in a letter regarding difficulty warming up the engine.

The owner said that the choke was working properly but that the engine continued to operate on a much too rich mixture because it popped back through the carburetor. He tossed this off with quite a show of mechanical understanding, and yet that popping back was evidence of just the opposite. This mixture was much too lean. It was true that the choke was not the cause of this situation, but he would not have suspected that he leanness was the result of a bad air leak in the intake manifold.

Builds Up Pressure

Having the brakes apply themselves is no pleasant experience, as many a driver knows. If this happens it may be due to gumming of the piston of the master cylinder. The effect of this is to cause pressure to build up automatically within the lines, since the piston doesn't return to the "off" position. There's a spring within the master cylinder to push the piston back but if the latter is gummy the resistance may be too great.

Next time I find another driver making a special effort to overtake me I'll gladly slow down a little to let him pass. The other day I found that the chap who caught up with me wanted to warn that one of the car doors wasn't fully closed. It was a nice gesture.

What's Your Trouble?

Q I have been troubled with a tendency for the engine to load up even though the carburetor float level has been carefully set. One mechanic believes this is due to excessive pulsation from the fuel pump. T. H. B.

A. How about installing a fuel pump pressure regulator? It fits in the line between the pump and the carburetor, preventing high pressures that raise the float too high.

Q Do power brakes stop a car more quickly. If not, then what advantage do they offer. K. B.

A. No car needs any more braking power than is required to lock its wheels. Most cars today have sufficient braking power when in good condition. Power boosting serves largely to make it easier to operate the brakes. I used

PATRONS WANT ORCHESTRA TO PLAY IN SHELL

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Patrons of the Philadelphia Orchestra want the orchestra to continue playing within the shell on the Academy of Music stage.

Subscribers, after hearing the orchestra perform both within the shell and on the open stage, voted overwhelmingly for the orchestra to stay in the shell.

The question voted on was one of acoustics. Experts in the field differed on whether the orchestra sounded better in the semi-circular shell or on the open stage.

The orchestra has been successfully recorded without any backdrop.

Patrons were asked to vote on which method they thought sounded the best during performances played half in and half out of the shell, Nov. 20 and 21.

The management said results so far show 1,126 for the shell, 352 against and 90 undecided.

power braking 25 years ago with four steps of power to take care of all kinds of driving conditions. Q What is meant by a "square" engine? Wm. L. D.

A. A square engine has a stroke of the pistons that equals the diameter of the cylinder bores.

Q My car refuses to get into action, although the engine runs normally. This is an automatic transmission job. You would think I had left the selector lever in the "neutral" position. L. B. Jr.

A. There could be something wrong with the selector lever control, but the chances are that failure of the car to get into action indicates low fluid level in the automatic transmission. Oil may be leaking out.

Q Why is there so much talk about checking carbon? I understand that carbon removers are coming back into the picture. With anti-knock gasoline I thought we were well past the carbon worry stage some years ago. R. H.

A. You are completely overlooking the fact that the car makers have been jumping compression ratios to a point where they are 8 to 1 or over on some of the American cars. In spite of higher octane gas carbon is back into the picture because, in taking up space within the cylinders, it has the effect of raising compression. Then too, there is the matter of heat. Carbon causes pre-ignition.

Q I want to drop the motor oil pan of my car but understand that on this make and model I must remove the front insulator support assembly of the motor in order to get at the front oil pan screws. Is this correct? J. L. D.

A. Not on this model. I'm glad to report that you have merely to turn the engine shaft so as to locate the No. 1 piston at the top of its stroke.

Q At about what mileage do car repairs start to reach a point where it may be wiser to trade? W. W. E.

A. Of course this varies with the car, the driver and the way the car has to be used. Some put the mileage at about 40,000.

RED OFFICER SHOT IN KOREA

INCHON, Korea (AP)—A Communist Czech officer who was shot and wounded here will be sent to a Red hospital near Panmunjom in the neutral zone today, the U. N. Command said Friday.

The officer, a member of a Neutral Nations Truce Inspection team working here, was shot in the head early Thursday. His condition is listed as serious.

The Czech, Lt. Col. Vojtech Bagda, was taken aboard the U.S. hospital ship Consolation shortly after the shooting. He will be flown from the ship to Panmunjom by a UNC helicopter.

Other Czech team members did not allow American officers to question the wounded man. They reported he was shot accidentally when a pistol he was packing in a bag went off.

American officers said Bagda should not have brought a loaded gun on his South Korean inspection trip, but indicated they would make no protest.

They also indicated they believed the accidental shooting theory. "It was just a minor incident," one officer said.

Doctors aboard the Consolation reported the bullet entered the tall, blond Czech's head at an unlikely angle for a suicide attempt.

Pat Biscaglia, a sophomore, is the oldest member of the Notre Dame grid squad. He is 23 years old. He said is the only ex-serve-man on the team.

"HE LIKED IT HERE" SAYS WIFE OF ZDANOWSKI

BRIDGETON, N. J. — Mrs. Rae Schaffer Zdanowski cried "He liked it here" in the United States when told the unhappy news, as reported by a Russian agency, that her Polish-born GI husband had fled to Communist East Germany.

Mrs. Zdanowski, 23, had met and married her husband only a few months before he was drafted in July, 1952.

She said he came to the U. S. in 1949.

Weeps At News
The official East German zone news agency, ADN, said in a Thanksgiving Day dispatch that the 25-year-old Zdanowski entered East Germany Nov. 7 and was turned over to Polish authorities at his own request.

ADN quoted the GI as charging America with being an "aggressive nation."

Dentist Killed In Waynesboro Crash

WAYNESBORO, Pa. — A dentist from Chatham, N. J., was killed Thursday in a two-car smashup on the Maryland border near here. The victim was identified as 44-year-old Theodore Wycall of Chatham. Six other persons were hurt in the head-on crash.

Wycall's wife, Josephine, 43, and son Theodore Jr., 15, were taken to Waynesboro Hospital. Another son, 11-years old, was said to have escaped injury. The Wycalls had been visiting relatives at nearby Quincy, Pa.

Police identified the driver of the other car as Jared McKown, 25, of Waynesboro, who was reported in critical condition at the hospital. Three persons riding with him were injured less seriously.

His wife, weeping at the news, said she never heard her husband "criticize" this country.

The Army's European headquarters at Heidelberg, Germany, said Zdanowski had been AWOL since Nov. 1.

28TH DIVISION NEARS ONE THIRD ENLISTMENTS

HARRISBURG — Organization of the new 28th Infantry Division reached the one-third mark today. And what's more, more than half of the officers and men comprise re-enlistments from the old 28th.

"I think that's a marvelous record," said Adj. Gen. Frank A. Weber. "All these old-timers coming back in the outfit form a wonderful training core and increases the esprit de corps of the division." Division strength is now 3,200 officers and men. Of 117 units, Weber told a newsman, 96 already have been federally recognized. The ultimate strength of the division is 10,000 officers and men.

The division, with National Guard status, was revived last June. Pennsylvania's old 28th Division is still on occupation duty in Germany after being federalized in September 1950.

Weber said organization plans are "well along" in the 109th Infantry Regiment at Scranton, the 110th at Washington, Pa., the 112th at Erie, the 107th Field Artillery battalion at Pittsburgh, the 108th at Philadelphia and the 109th at Wilkes-Barre, the 628th Tank Battalion at Johnstown, the 899th Aircraft Artillery Battalion at Lancaster and Division Artillery, Military Police and Headquarters units at Harrisburg.

Still on paper, he said, are medical and ordnance units.

Weber said "an ambitious recruiting campaign" will get under way Feb. 1 to round out not only the already organized outfits but also those still to be created.

Brig. Gen. Henry J. Fluck, Somerset, is acting division commander after Maj. Gen. Charles C. Curtis stepped down from the command last month because of ill health.

Weber also disclosed the strength of non-division troops in the Pennsylvania National Guard has reached 8,000 in addition to 3,000 officers and men in the Air National Guard.

"Even at our present strength," he said, "we are the largest guard in the Second Army Area."

Weber said the guard staff was "especially surprised" at the big turnout of re-enlistments from guard units that served in World War II and Korean conflict.

Pennsylvania gave 17,000 ground troops and 2,500 airmen from its Guard to the Korean action. Weber said this was twice as many as from California and three times more than other states.

WAGE EARNERS HELD "MISLED" ON AGE BENEFITS

WASHINGTON — The chairman of a House subcommittee charges that American wage earners were "misled" for nearly 18 years into believing they had ironclad rights to government old age insurance benefits.

Chairman Carl T. Curtis (R-Neb) said last night that people who have been contributing regularly to the program via payroll deductions actually are not protected by written contracts or policies such as they would get from private firms and that Congress can change provisions of the law whenever it sees fit to do so.

Marked By Verbal Rows
Curtis' Ways and Means subcommittee completed two weeks of hearings on the social security system, with former Social Security Commissioner Arthur J. Altmeyer as final witness.

Altmeyer debated the issue with Curtis and Subcommittee Counsel Robert H. Winn for seven hours in a hearing that erupted more than once into verbal rows.

Protest Methods
Democratic Representatives Dingell of Michigan and Eberhardt of Pennsylvania interrupted the testimony at frequent intervals to protest questioning methods used by Winn and Curtis.

At the close of the hearing that ran into the evening, Curtis told Altmeyer that agencies under his direction during the Roosevelt and Truman administrations "repeatedly told the people of the country that they had insurance."

The Nebraska said "a number of people were misled," including himself. He said he used to think the government "had a contractual obligation to fulfill (social security) benefits."

Contract Absent
He said that when the Eisenhower administration took over last winter, 90 million people were contributing to the program through payroll taxes, but that 6 out of 10 persons are ineligible for one reason or another.

Curtis predicted that this Congress will "write some good social security legislation."

Altmeyer, an architect of the program that began in 1935, acknowledged the absence of actual policies or contracts, but he contended that "the full faith and credit" of the United States lies behind the social security rights created by law.

BOSTON — Eugene O'Neill, whose dramas captivated audiences for two decades, died quietly last night of pneumonia. He was 65.

The playwright, a Nobel Prize winner and three-time Pulitzer Prize winner in literature, had roamed the world for material until recent years, when he was stricken by Parkinson's disease. That ailment—a form of palsy—gradually cut down his activities until writing became impossible.

At his bedside at his home last night were his third wife, the former Carlotta Monterey, his physician, Dr. Harry L. Kozol, and his nurse. Dr. Kozol said death was caused by bronchial pneumonia.

Won Nobel Prize
High point in his long career was in 1936 when he was awarded the Nobel Prize in literature. The award committee did not cite any particular work but O'Neill considered his play "Mourning Becomes Electra" a strong factor in the choice.

That prize was only one of the many honors won by the prolific playwright, who had more than two score plays produced. His Pulitzer Prizes were for "Beyond the Horizon," 1920; "Anna Christie," 1922; and "Strange Interlude," 1928.

On receiving news of O'Neill's death, George Jean Nathan, influential newspaper and magazine drama critic, said in New York the American theater had lost its greatest playwright and "I have lost one of my longest and dearest friends."

Known Since '17
Nathan was one of the first to recognize O'Neill's talents and started to open Broadway doors for him in 1917. O'Neill's last Broadway play was "The Iceman Cometh" in 1946.

Other O'Neill plays included "The Emperor Jones," "The Straw," "Desire Under the Elms," "Marco Millions," "Ah, Wilderness," "Days Without End," "The Fountain," and "All God's Chillun Got Wings."

And his one-act plays were equally famous. They included "The Long Voyage Home," "The Dreamy Kid," "The Rope," and "Bound East for Cardiff."

After "Days Without End" was produced in 1934, O'Neill was away from the stage until 1946, when "The Iceman Cometh" arrived on Broadway. That drama, laid in a Hell's Kitchen saloon, had drunks and bums as main characters, and the iceman was death.

His only daughter, Oona, is the wife of movie comedian Charlie Chaplin.

Commercial TV Is Planned In Britain
LONDON — Prime Minister Churchill's Conservatives beat down a rebellion in their own ranks Thursday, winning approval in the House of Lords of Cabinet plans to introduce commercial television in Britain.

The peers by a 157-87 vote defeated a motion opposing the government's scheme. A full debate is now slated for the House of Commons.

The nation's present TV and radio are a monopoly of the publicly owned British Broadcasting Corp. Under the new plan, some advertising would be accepted to earn money for improving and expanding the service.

SIXTH OF PUSAN IN RUINS AFTER ALL-NIGHT FIRE
PUSAN, Korea — One-sixth of this teeming port city of one million population smoldered tonight after an all-night fire that scorched a 1½-mile swath, left at least three Koreans dead and leveled 6,000 homes and buildings.

Twenty Koreans were hurt and two Korean firemen were overcome by smoke.

Police said two children and a 26-year-old man were dead.

Blame Charcoal
The U.S. Army estimated damage to this refugee-choked city at 20 million dollars. The blaze raged for nearly 12 hours.

It was one of the most devastating fires in Korean history.

Relief agencies rushed aid to 45,000 left homeless. Many were given temporary shelter in U.S. Army warehouses, theaters and schools.

The blaze broke out in a jammed tenement section. Police said it started in a charcoal oven left unattended by a housewife.

About 120,000 horses were pulling street cars in the United States in 1884.
